

Questions for Interviewers

1. Isn't it better to give than receive? We are taught all our lives that it is better to give than receive. It seems that you are advocating for the opposite? Are you?
2. Why is receiving important?
3. What is the definition of "receive"?
4. Give a concrete example that demonstrates a benefit from receiving.
5. Why is it hard for people to receive a compliment?
6. If I accept a gift, do I owe the giver?
7. You advocate the importance of a complaint fast. How does that relate to receiving?
8. What can people do today to help them learn how to receive?
9. What advice do you have for people who give to others and receive little or nothing in return?
10. What if you want to receive something from someone who doesn't want to give? Is there a way to get other people to be more giving?